Adoption Trails and Country Tales: Our Heartwarming Journey to Growing Our Family through Adoption

Dearest Birth Mother,

Warm greetings from our hearts to yours! We are Jake (Dad), Jacci (Mom), Avery (Big Sis – 14 years old), and Asher (Little Brother – 4 years old). We want to start by expressing our understanding of the immense decision you are facing. We acknowledge the sacrifice and difficulty you're experiencing and want you to know that our thoughts and prayers are with you during this challenging journey.

Avery, our precious miracle, came into our lives after a journey of struggles with infertility treatments. Asher, our adorable son, found his way to us through the beautiful path of adoption when he was just a day old. Due to medical reasons, Jacci underwent a hysterectomy in 2014, which means that adoption is the route we've chosen to expand our family. Should it be in God's plan, and we truly hope it is, we are committed to providing a loving, stable, and faith-centered environment for your baby to thrive throughout their life.

We are truly honored that you're considering us. Our hearts have been filled with prayers for you and your baby for quite some time. Your presence in our lives is already a blessing. Your decision to choose life for your baby fills us with gratitude and hope. We believe that God has a perfect plan, and the right child will come into our lives at the right time.

Our faith is the foundation of our lives, and we live it out daily by following the teachings of the Bible. We actively engage with our church community and find joy in giving back to society. Jacci is a part of our local church's worship team and often sings songs to the children. Our family values quality time spent together, whether it's tending to our farm, enjoying movie nights, or exploring nature. These moments mean the world to us.

Anticipating the arrival of a new baby, we look forward to singing lullabies, sharing bedtime stories, offering prayers in the morning and evening, and embracing precious cuddles. We recognize the strength, bravery, and selflessness in your decision. We are proud of you and feel humbled to be chosen to accompany you on this journey. Your gift of life is a true miracle, and we are honored to play a role in providing the best life possible for your baby.

Sending you all our love,
Jake, Jacci, Avery, and Asher

With a heart full of compassion and love, I wanted to share a glimpse into my life as a Wife, Mom, Nurse, and Homesteader. Each of these roles shapes who I am, and it's an honor to let you into my world.

A Glimpse into My World

At home, surrounded by our beloved children and a growing family of farm animals, I find my greatest joy. Our homestead is nestled in the breathtaking landscape of the Pacific Northwest, a true haven we call home. My daughter Avery and I share a passion for creativity and all things crafty. Her spirited nature is a constant inspiration, and her love for horses runs deep. Nurturing her equestrian pursuits is a privilege I hold close to my heart, shuttling her to lessons and events, and watching her thrive. With Asher, my tower-building and puzzle-solving partner, our days are filled with cozy story times and outdoor adventures – from weeding the garden to collecting eggs from the chicken coop. These precious moments define my world.

Among my personal joys are cooking and experimenting with new recipes, singing melodies at home or with the church worship team, and diving into creative projects. The beauty of the outdoors beckons, and long walks, bike rides, and drives are my way of appreciating the changing seasons and the wonders they bring. With all four seasons gracing our lives, there's never a shortage of adventures for me and my family.

As a wife, I'm blessed to share my life with Jake, my best friend and partner of 16 years.

Our laughter and quality time are the cornerstones of our relationship. Watching him nurture and guide our children warms my heart; he's a remarkable father and a true partner in every sense.

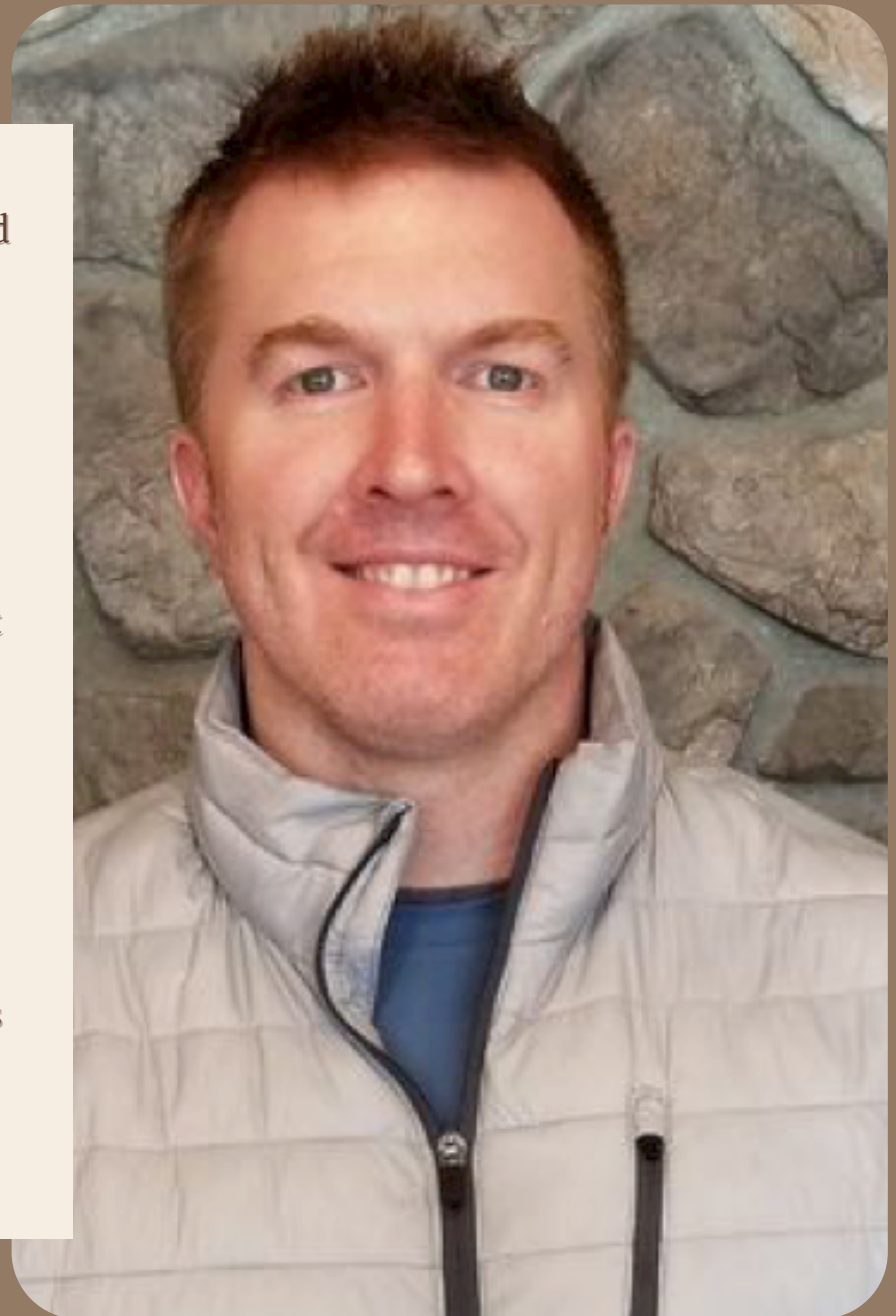

Within me burns a deep desire to expand our family through adoption. Each day, I pray for the chance to embrace another child with open arms and boundless love. The prospect of holding a new little one fills my heart with eager anticipation. I want to express my gratitude to you, Momma, for the incredible gift of life you've given, and for entrusting me with your precious gift. Your sacrifice resonates deeply with me, and I hold it in the highest regard.

Jake

With deep compassion and boundless love, I want to introduce you to Jake, a father with an unwavering heart, and a true hero in the eyes of his children. The unique connections he shares with Avery and Asher hold a special place in our family's tapestry. His involvement in their lives brings immeasurable joy, whether they're pursuing their passions or conquering challenges. As the family's pillar of encouragement and dreams, he ensures our well-being through his own businesses, crafting a flexible schedule that allows him to be present whenever we need him. His mornings often begin with supporting our kids' routines, from school drop-offs to cozy moments at home.

We've held a dream close to our hearts – that of expanding our family. When I, Jake, imagine holidays, birthdays, and the gathering of generations under one roof, my heart swells with anticipation. This property we've called our "forever home" now holds the possibility of embracing another precious child within its loving embrace.

A Personal Message from Jake:

First and foremost, I want to express my gratitude for considering our profile. As I reflect on what to convey, one thought stands out – I see you as a true hero. The path you've walked in these recent weeks or months is beyond my comprehension, yet your choice to give life to this baby radiates a blessing that extends beyond words. To me, you are a hero. Amidst any information about my profession or other details, this is what I want to share: you are a blessing, a hero, and we are profoundly thankful for your sacrifice. Our family is one of kindness and love, ready to envelop this new baby in the same affection we share. From the moment we meet our new blessing and every day after, we'll treasure and honor the gift you've given.

Rest assured, your trust in us is well-placed. I solemnly pledge that this child will never lack anything. Within the shelter of our home, I vow to provide stability, safeguarding it with my daily prayers. Guided by the principles of love and faith from the Bible, I will raise this child to be respectful, compassionate, and responsible. Your courageous sacrifice in choosing life for this baby is recognized and appreciated beyond measure. You are a hero to us all, and our hearts overflow with gratitude.

Jake exemplifies unwavering faith and devotion to the Lord. He finds immense joy and fulfillment in following God's teachings and principles. Additionally, Jake embraces the freedom and independence that comes with being self-employed, allowing him to pursue his passion for working on his small farm.

A Heartfelt Glimpse into Our Faith-Filled Family

In the heart of our family, faith is the foundation that shapes our lives. Our Christian beliefs are not only a part of our identity but also a source of unwavering strength. We gather in our local church, connecting with a community that radiates warmth and togetherness. The people we've come to know have become an extended family, sharing in the journey of faith alongside us. It's a place where our daughter Avery thrives within the vibrant children's ministry and youth group.

Our church community, filled with love and faith, embraces us through potlucks, camps, and cherished family outings. With a Christ-centered worldview, we find comfort and guidance in the teachings of the Bible. Our evenings are adorned with family prayers, uniting our hearts and spirits. Our past adoption journey was deeply enriched by our faith, reminding us that even in moments of sadness and fear, God's plan is always best.

Nurturing our family bond is paramount to us. We revel in the simple joy of being together, whether it's sharing laughter, playing games, or working on chores around our charming hobby farm. Vacations, both planned and spontaneous, weave precious memories into the fabric of our lives. Understanding the unique needs of each child, we treasure one-on-one moments where individual passions can flourish.

Our 20-acre homestead in Northern Idaho is the backdrop of our love-filled life. Here, we've created a haven where animals of all kinds find a cherished home. Horses, goats, pigs, cows, chickens, cats, and dogs fill our days with joy and purpose. The land blesses us with a bounty of fruit trees and berries, painting our days with vibrant colors. Nearby, a serene lake beckons for reflection, while a ski mountain just a short drive away invites us to embrace the thrill of adventure.

As you read about our family, we hope you sense the love and faith that are the essence of our lives. Thank you for joining us on this journey, and we look forward to sharing more with you soon.

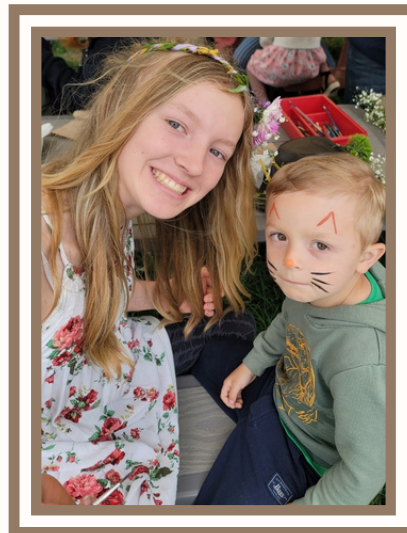

Education and Nurturing Hearts

Education holds a special place in our family's story, as both our children thrive in private schools within our close-knit community. Avery, our wonderful big sister, embodies a massive heart. Her desire to embrace this role began at the tender age of 6, and when we welcomed Asher into our home when she was around 10, her heart expanded even further. Now, she's eagerly anticipating becoming a big sister once more.

Asher's educational journey unfolds at a local Christian farm school, just a short 5-mile drive from our home. This unique school offers a nurturing environment that engages students in farm life experiences, fostering their connection to nature. Devotional time and play are woven into their days, along with a cherished time for rest. With small class sizes and a privately owned setting, the school exudes a sense of family. Asher flourishes there, immersing himself in outdoor play with friends, come rain, shine, or snow.

As we dream about our newest family member's journey, we envision them walking the same path. The same school that has nurtured Asher's spirit will warmly embrace them when the time comes. The blend of a small class size, Christian values, and the rustic charm of a farm setting creates an environment where children can truly thrive.

Message from Avery (14 Years Old):

WATCH VIDEO

Hi my name is Avery and I am 14 years old. My favorite things to do are play outside with my brother (Asher), ride my horse (Gambler), hang out with my friends at the barn where I board my horse, and spend time with my other animals such as my dogs, miniature horses, cows/calves, and cats. There is one thing I will never forget, the day I stepped into the stirrup for the first time. From then on, my true passion has been horses. I plan to become a horse teacher and trainer in my near future and help people appreciate horses and positive training methods.

I have been blessed with this opportunity of becoming a big sister again! This is true blessing and an answer to prayer. If the Lord decides we are the right fit for your baby, I am sure He will make it happen. If that is what it comes to, I want you to know that I would help him/her on their path with the Lord every week, every day. I would help teach them the ways of our farm, I would read with them at night, I would let them sleep with me if he/she happened to have a bad dream and needs someone to hug, I would teach her/him to ride if they wanted, I would hold his or her hand every step of the way through their journey in life.

Blessings, Avery

The idea of having a new brother or sister is seriously awesome. From making blanket forts to having epic game nights, I can't wait to show them the ropes and create this super cool sibling bond. Our family is about to get even more fantastic, and I'm jumping with joy just thinking about it!

Asher

Waiting patiently to be a BIG brother...

My name is Asher and I tell my Mom, Dad and Sister that I want to have a baby sister or brother to grow up with and share my toys with and to love. I love to play puzzles in the floor and with building blocks made of wood or with my magnetic tile blocks. I build big tall towers and have fun knocking them back down.

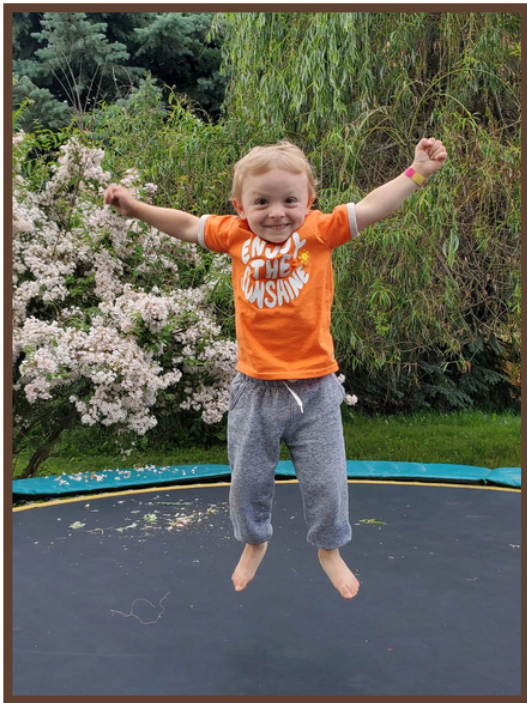

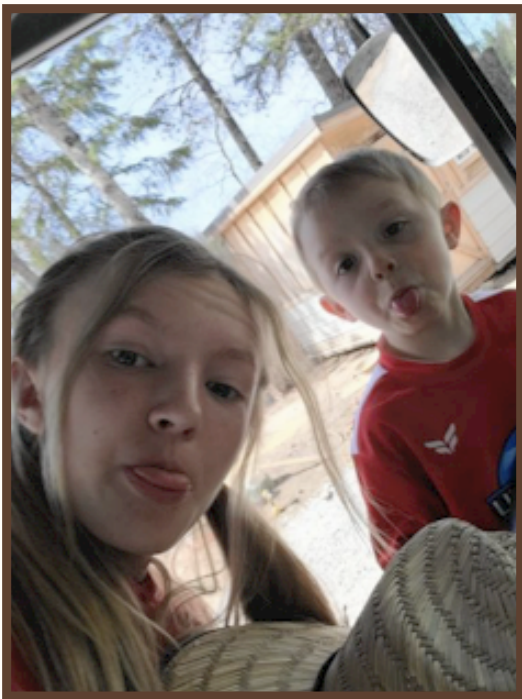

I love my doggies and all the animals on the farm. I love my stuffed animals and sleep with a special one each night. I like story time with my Mom and like to ride on the tractor with my Dad.

I have many adventures with my family and I can't wait to have some with my new sibling soon. I am excited to meet the new little baby that will come to be with us. I promise to be a good big brother and will help my family love them so much

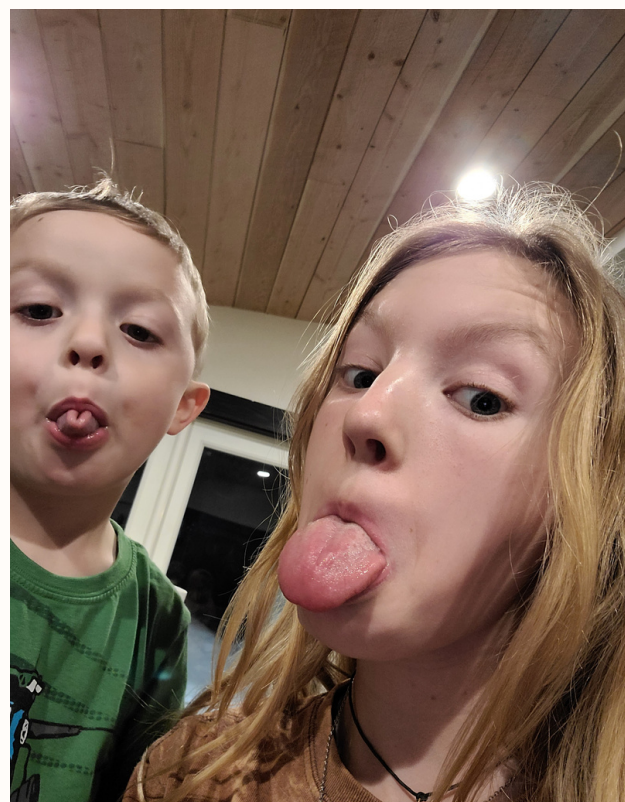

This is us...

Exploring the path of open adoption, we're committed to creating a warm and inclusive space where your child's life is enriched by the love of both families, forming a unique and beautiful tapestry of connections."

A rustic wooden cabin with a steep gabled roof, covered in snow. The cabin is made of light-colored wood and features several windows, some of which are illuminated from within. The front entrance has a large wooden door with a decorative X-shaped brace. Wreaths are hanging on the walls, and warm, glowing lights are visible through the windows and under the eaves. The cabin is surrounded by snow-covered ground and evergreen trees, creating a cozy winter atmosphere.

Thank you for taking the time to learn about our family!

Whatever they are passionate about, I would walk with them and help them build a strong foundation. Jeremiah 29:11 says: “For I know the plans I have for you,” declares the Lord, “plans for welfare and not for evil, to give you a future and a hope.”

Colossians 1:16 says: “For in him all things were created: things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or powers or rulers or authorities; all things have been created through him and for him.”
