

Kavitha

Hey Mama

Thank you for taking time to read my story. I'm both nervous and excited to share myself and my family with you. While it's hard to fit a whole life into a little book, I'll try my best to show you all of me, my family and my world. If I could reach out now to hug you, I definitely would. More than words can ever express, thank you for considering me to be a part of your life through the unimaginable gift of adopting your child.

So Nice to Meet You!!

I have so much respect and appreciation for you. I can only try to understand the incredibly important choice you are making. Making an adoption plan for your baby is the most selfless act that you can ever do. It's an incredible testament to the wonderful woman you are and the love you have for your child.

I knew when the time was right, adoption would be the path I would be taking. I believe adoption is as natural as any other option. I strongly believe that the lives we make with others and our family of choice are more than just the genetics we share.

ABOUT ME

I was born in India, and have been living in USA for the last 20 years. My family is excited for me to share my heart with a new baby as they know I've always wanted to adopt a child. I have a great support system - family and friends. I have an older sister who lives close by. With your blessing, I will share my love and support with your child.

"Nature's beauty is a gift that cultivates appreciation and gratitude." I love being a part of nature.

What I Do

I work as an IT Manager, managing software projects and also people. I have a Master's degree in Computer Science. I work from home and my job provides me the flexibility to choose my work hours. I teach programming to middle schoolers and high schoolers during my free time. I enjoy teaching music to little kids and also have fun singing along with them.

I love to sing and cook. I like to read, practice yoga, travel, go on walks in the park, see my friends and their children, and Facetime my friends and family that live around the world. I also love painting, crafts, petting zoos, and the Children's Museum, all of which will be way more fun with a little one!

I celebrate both American and Indian holidays. I have a diverse group of friends that I hang out with and celebrate Christmas, Thanksgiving, Diwali, Holi etc. I would like to celebrate these holidays along with your child and share the wonderful traditions.

WHAT MY FAMILY SAYS : "Kavitha enjoys problem-solving and creating structure out of chaos and has made that her career. She is curious and approaches the world enthusiastically. Her favorite thing is making herself and other people laugh. Kavitha's best qualities are her friendliness and ability to think outside the box. She is full of love that she wants to share with those around her."

At a Ranch

I love to travel and especially love to try all the new foods that I can! I can read a menu in about three different languages. I can't wait to show your child the whole world full of different cultures, foods, languages, and adventures! I love the diversity of Dallas, which offers so much close to home, too.

my HOME

I lived in Baton Rouge, Hartford and Baltimore, but Dallas has been my home for the past 6 years. I've put down strong roots, and it is my forever chosen city! I created a warm and loving home here that is ready to grow my family. My home is colorful and bright, full of art, plants, books, and whimsy. It's a wonderful combination of modern and cozy. I have the perfect room for a light-filled nursery that I am waiting to be filled with the sounds of a baby's laughter!

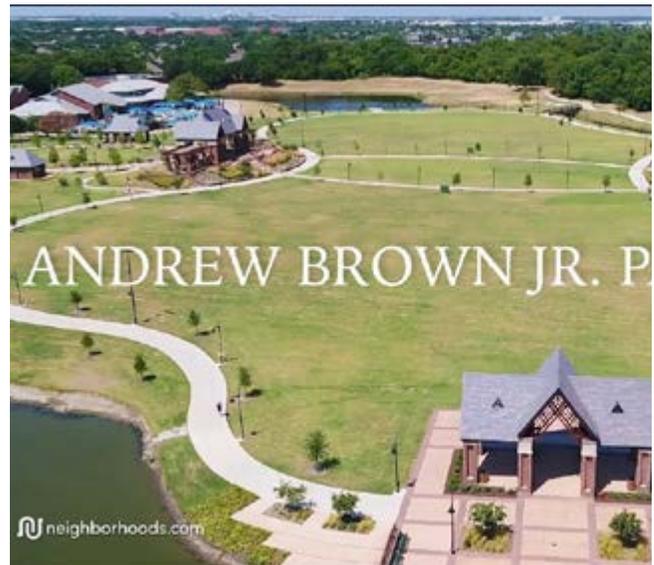

my COMMUNITY

I live in the city, central to everything. My home is in a diverse and vibrant neighborhood full of sculptures, museums, and parks. We can walk to several parks including the second largest park in the city. The public library is just three blocks away and hosts Baby and Toddler Storytime weekly. Our neighborhood is zoned to a district with several great schools so your child will receive an excellent education.

The street itself is a beautiful tree-lined street with a beautiful landscape. Everyday I see my neighbors out and about walking dogs, running or riding bikes with their kids. In my neighborhood there's always something going on: activities for kids, summer block parties etc.

FAMILY and FRIENDS

We are a diverse family. I have cousins spread across various states in USA and also in India. I have an older sibling who lives 3 miles away and two cousins who live in Dallas. Everyone is so thrilled and excited to welcome a baby into our family.

Snowy

Six-year-old dog son, Snowy, lets me play with him. He loves to cuddle and follows me everywhere I go. He has been my friend since he was 6 weeks old and is great at napping, catching toys in mid-air, and trying to do yoga with me.

My Promise to You

I promise to be present, physically and emotionally, and always make your child feel secure and loved. I promise to nurture a love for education and curiosity about the world. I will guide your child to be thoughtful, kind, and self-aware, and to make a positive difference in the world, no matter how small or large. I have so much respect and appreciation for you. Without you, there will be no "us."

Christmas is the perfect time to celebrate the gift of family, whether it's through blood or through the beautiful bond of adoption. Looking forward to spending next Christmas with my adopted child

WITH LOVE

Thank you for taking the time to learn more about me and for considering me as an adoptive parent for your child.
