

Tania

hello!

I'M Tania

I'm excited to learn
ABOUT YOU AND ANY HOPES
YOU HAVE FOR YOUR CHILD.

Let me share a few things about me!

About Me

I'M A SINGLE, AFRICAN-AMERICAN WOMAN LIVING IN CHARLOTTE, NC.

ENJOYING ICE CREAM AT ONE OF MY FAVORITE PLACES

I've been blessed with a big family and a successful career practicing law, prioritizing home ownership, economic responsibility and long term planning for a future that has always envisioned children.

I have thoughtfully built a life full of love, fun, friends,
family, work, and travel.

And, I want to adopt a child so that they can join and share in the benefits of the joyful life I've built.

WELCOME TO MY HOME!

MY Home

Living in Charlotte, NC

AFFORDS ME ACCESS TO BOTH RESOURCES OF A BIG CITY AND THE FAMILY SUPPORT OF A SUBURBAN NEIGHBORHOOD.

I have lived in a three-story townhouse for almost 15 years, in a neighborhood of other townhomes and single family homes. My home is close to a local university and a large hospital, and there are plenty of parks, playgrounds, pools, churches and schools nearby. There is a pool in the neighborhood, and the home owner's association often hosts pool parties in the warmer months, as well as movie nights, block parties and food trucks throughout the year.

↑ MY BEDROOM

One of my hobbies is home decor, and I pride myself on having created a beautiful, but comfortable and functional home.

I decorate with lots of color, and also include family pictures and items with personal significance. I love to read, so there are books shelved and stored all over the house! There is plenty of hardwood flooring and space to play and dance, and a dedicated bedroom for your child. I want to maintain a space that provides both shelter and support for a child's developing personality, gifts and interests.

My Dog, SHADOW

Shadow is a mixed breed dog that I rescued five years ago from a shelter. She loves to sleep, eat, play and get rubs! She is the sweetest, most affectionate and protective dog you will ever meet! She loves people, especially children, and will follow you around waiting for extra hugs and petting.

Dance!

I have taken and taught dance classes since my OWN CHILDHOOD, AND I LOVE LEARNING NEW MOVES OR TECHNIQUES.

↓ ROLLER SKATING FUN!

I even got certified as a dance fitness, Zumba and Zumba-Kids instructor, and performed with other local instructors during half-time at a Charlotte Bobcats basketball game. I also love reading, writing, roller skating and listening to live music.

MY Work

I started my legal career working at the local legal aid office representing under served Spanish-speaking clients, and then as a Guardian ad litem representing children in high conflict custody cases. Through these roles, I assisted families experiencing domestic violence, families dealing with high conflict divorce and families with children who have disabilities.

I believe children are only as safe as the adults who protect them, and I continue this work through mentoring and pro bono work.

MY Village

I AM SO GRATEFUL FOR THE SUPPORT OF FAMILY AND FRIENDS WHO WILL BE OUR VILLAGE!

Most of my family lives just a few hours away in Georgia, and my sister is thrilled she will be an aunt for the first time! My seven nieces and nephews are my favorite people in the world, and I love watching each of them become their own person. Additionally, my family is originally from Barbados, and I travel there frequently to visit extended family, soak up Bajan culture and frolic on the beach!

I also have a tight-knit circle of friends – my “sweat & tears” brothers and sisters - who all live nearby and are excited to go on this journey with me. There will be plenty of male and female role models to love and cherish your child! Plus, many of my close friends have children of their own, who already look forward to having a new playmate. I enjoy traveling to visit friends who may live farther away, and look forward to taking a child to different places, gaining new experiences and perspectives, and building emotional intelligence about other cultures.
